

DAY IN DAVENPORT

Hunts Brother Missing Nine Years—Chief Hans Schramm received a letter from Lillian Davidson, 1915 Water street, Ft. Madison, Iowa, enlisting the aid of the Davenport police in her hunt for a brother, Lucian Davidson, from whom she has not heard in nine years. Davidson was located in Davenport the last time his sister heard from him.

Recovers Lost Automobile Tire—City Detective John Kinney recovered the lost automobile tire which Dr. Krueger reported stolen to the Davenport police a few days ago. The tire was found on the street where it had been abandoned by the thief or thieves whom the city detectives were trailing. The police believe they have clues that will lead to the arrest of the parties guilty of stealing automobile accessories during the past month. Two of the suspects are reported to have left the city. They are thought to be the men whom City Detective Kinney was trailing when he recovered the lost tire.

Lecture Will Be Complimentary—Tickets to the Ernest K. Coulter lecture, which will be held Monday evening, Feb. 16, at the high school auditorium, are complimentary, and may be secured from any of the principals of the public schools of the city. Mr. Coulter, who is clerk of the Children's court of New York county and founder of the Big Brother movement, comes to Davenport under the management of the Davenport Teachers' club. His subject will be "The Citizens of Tomorrow."

City to Clean Walks—Clean your sidewalks or the city will do it and collect five cents per foot for the job. This was the notice of the Davenport board of public works yesterday after the walks had been covered with snow and many delinquent citizens had apparently made no effort to get out their snow shovels. An ordinance was passed by the city council in December making it compulsory for citizens to clean off their sidewalks immediately after a snow storm. If they fail to comply with the ordinance city gangs will do the work and a charge of five cents per foot levied against the property. In other words, if a man has a 20-foot strip of walk in front of his home and the city cleans it off he will be charged $1.

Librarian's Report—The regular meeting of the library board was held Thursday afternoon at the library. The librarian, Miss Rose, reported a busy month for January. Beside the usual demand in all departments which is greater during the winter season, the quarterly bulletin has been published, and the grade libraries in the public schools checked and transferred from one school to another. Miss Bertha Rogers of the staff left Jan. 16 for a trip to California and her place has been temporarily filled by Miss Florence O'Connell of Clinton. The circulation of books through the schools and in the children's room fell a little below that of last January, but the loss was more than made up by the gain at the main desk and the deposit stations. The total for the month was 15,869, a gain of 278 over Jan. 1913. The average number of books given out each day was 610, the largest number 922, and the smallest 325. The registrations continue to increase. The new borrowers in January numbered 153. The new Danish books are very popular and there seems to be more Danish readers in Davenport than Bohemian or Swedish readers as the books in the last two languages are not much used.

Auxiliary Accepts Invitation—St. Mary's Junior Auxiliary of Trinity cathedral accepted an invitation from the Junior Auxiliary of Trinity Episcopal church, Rock Island, for Monday evening, Feb. 16, when a meeting will be held at the parish house.

Maennerchor to Give a Concert—Sunday, Feb. 15, the St. Joseph's Maennerchor will give its annual concert in the auditorium of the new St. Joseph's school, Sixth and Marquette street. The chorus under the direction of Prof. Ernst Otto has been practicing diligently for the past few months and a surprise is promised those who attend the concert which is to be interesting throughout and will overshadow the concerts of previous years. The program will be varied, German and English quartets, trios and chorus numbers, that will certainly be a splendid evening's entertainment for any one.

In District Court—Martin Specht filed a petition for divorce from his wife, Mary Specht in district court. Statutory grounds is the charge. Fred Behrend, R. R. No. 3, Davenport, is named co-respondent. The Spechts were married Nov. 3, 1913.

Charging her husband with desertion, Mrs. Elizabeth Dalton asks for a divorce from Edward Dalton in a petition filed in district court yesterday. The Daltons were married at Farmington, Ill., Dec. 24, 1905, and lived together until Jan. 10, 1906. At that time Mrs. Dalton says she was deserted in Rock Island by her husband. A decree of divorce was granted by Judge Wm. Theophilus Doherty against Wm. L. Doherty, who is serving a year in state's prison for wife desertion. Habitual drunkenness and the fact that her husband was convicted of a felony were the charges. The Dohertys were married Oct. 3, 1907.

The Bettendorf company, against whom a verdict for $5,000 was returned by a jury in Judge Donegan's court Wednesday, in the suit for personal injuries brought against it by George Anagnonakis, a motion for a new trial. The defendant company claims the verdict was contrary to the evidence, to law and to the instructions of the court; that the verdict was excessive and shows passion and prejudice on the part of the jury; that the court erred in its rulings; and misconduct on the part of the plaintiff's counsel.

Obituary Record—Mrs. Mary A. Malloy, wife of M. J. Malloy, passed away at the Davenport hospital yesterday. She had been at the hospital for two weeks. Her death was due to an illness lasting over a year and this malady was aggravated by a severe fall which she received two weeks ago. She was 51 years old. A rather sad coincidence is the fact that Mrs. Malloy's death occurred on the day of her 30th wedding anniversary. Her maiden name was Mary A. Kelly. She was born in Monmouth, New Jersey, Feb. 9, 1862. When two years of age she came to Davenport with her parents and has since resided here. Feb. 6, 1884, in St. Anthony's church, she was united in marriage to M. J. Malloy, one of Davenport's well known business men and for years a leader in democratic city and state politics. Surviving in addition to the bereaved husband are six children, two sons and four daughters. These are James, John, Minnie, Agnes and Hazel at home, and Mrs. Thomas Behan of Davenport. A sister, Mrs. Herman Alex and three brothers, Andrew and Thomas Kelly of Davenport and James Kelly of Hannibal, Mo., also survive. The funeral will be held Monday morning with services at 9 o'clock at Holy Family church and interment in Holy Family cemetery.

Deep sorrow has come to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo R. Roddewig, with the death of their 1-month-old daughter, Helen H. Roddewig, which occurred at 1215 Harrison street, after a short illness. The baby was born here. Mr. Roddewig is a fireman at the No. 3 hose house. Besides the parents, there survive four brothers, Frank, Raymond, James and Howard Roddewig. The funeral was held yesterday morning from the home, with interment in Oakdale cemetery.

1 per cent per annum upon the amount by which the total net income exceeds $20,000 and does not exceed $50,000; 2 per cent per annum upon the total net incomes between $50,000 and $75,000; 3 per cent upon $75,000 to $100,000; 4 per cent upon $100,000 to $250,000; 5 per cent upon $250,000 to $500,000, and 6 per cent upon net incomes over $500,000.

"This tax will be obtained in two ways—by what is known as collection at source and collection from the individual. According to the first method all companies, corporations etc., having the custody or disposal of the interest, premiums, annuities, rents, etc., of another person, exceeding $3,000 for any taxable year, is required by the law to withhold 1 per cent of these gains and pay it to the government directly. But no such collection at the source will be made upon dividends, etc., of corporations subject to the corporation tax.

"The other method, that of collection from the individual, will be undertaken in this manner. Every person of legal age subject to the tax will be required to make accurate return of his annual income to the collector of internal revenue of the district in which he resides, this statement setting forth specifically his gross amount of income from all separate sources, and from this total must be deducted the aggregate items of expenses and allowances to which I referred.

"If the income taxpayer has his residence in a foreign country his returns will be made to the collector of the district in which his principal business in the United States is carried on. But if the taxpayer is liable only to the 'normal tax' of 1 per cent he need not make return of income derived from dividends on stock of corporations taxable under the corporation tax. Partnership will not be required to make returns of profits or income, for the reason that the individuals composing these partnerships will account for all income in their individual returns.

"The taxpayer must include in his statement of income gains, profits and income derived from salaries, wages or compensation for personal services of whatever kind and in whatever form paid, or from professions, business, trade, commerce or sales or dealings in property, whether real or personal; also income growing out of the ownership or use of or interest in real or personal property, and from interest, rents, dividends, securities of the transaction of any lawful business carried on for gain or profit. Proceeds of life insurance policies, however, are free from tax, and need not be included in the return of income. Neither shall interest upon United States, state, county or municipal bonds be included.

"Citizens must make these returns of their income whether living at home or abroad, but non-resident aliens are required to make returns only upon income derived from property in the United States.

"Physicians, lawyers and other persons receiving fees for professional services must include all actual receipts of such fees rendered in the year for which return is made, together with all unpaid accounts, charges for services or contingent income due for that year, if the same are considered good and collectible. Debts may be considered worthless only after legal proceedings to recover them have proved fruitless. Interest on notes, bonds and other evidence of indebtedness, if good and collectible at the end of the year, must be returned as income whether actually collected or not.

"Any person or officer of any corporation who makes a false or fraudulent return will be subject to a fine as high as $2,000, or to a term of imprisonment as long as one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. And furthermore, the commissioner of internal revenue is authorized to double his tax."

GIRL HAS CHANCE TO BE A PHYSICIAN

Brooklyn Runaway, Caught in Chicago, Will Be Permitted to Study.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 7.—Miss Florence Lawler, Brooklyn high school girl, who ran away because her parents wouldn't let her study to become a doctor, probably accomplished her purpose.

After her temporary guardian, Miss Wilhelmina Barr, secretary of the travelers' association of the Y. W. C. A., had talked to the girl's mother over the long distance telephone, she said she understood the medical education would be permitted.

Shortly afterward the girl's uncle, B. R. Hedges of Columbus, O., arrived for the girl. According to Miss Barr, he was "as happy as a child" to find her. She was just as glad to see him. They immediately prepared to leave Chicago and took a Pennsylvania train shortly after 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Lawler, mother of the girl, will meet her in Columbus and take her to Brooklyn.

"I believe the girl will get what she wants," Miss Barr said. "I have talked to her mother over the telephone and she told me she did not realize the girl was so serious in her requests for a medical education. The parents had decided that Florence ought to go to normal school and train to become a teacher. She was unwilling to do it. She was so serious in her plans for her future that she ran away rather than submit to a career that was not pleasing to her."

Miss Barr was responsible for the identification of Miss Lawler. The girl gave the name of her uncle as a reference in case of death or accident. Miss Barr wrote to him immediately and he got the Y. W. C. A. on the telephone at once, identifying the girl as his niece.

Have You $3,000 Income? If So, Better Admit It

Inquiring about the intricacies of the income tax law in New York customs house; William H. Osborn, commissioner of internal revenue.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Have you an income of $3,000 or more? If so, better look into this new federal income tax law and prepare to pay the tax. No use trying to dodge it. Uncle Sam's intelligent sleuths, working for Commissioner of Internal Revenue William H. Osborn, are said to be gathering information on the quiet. Perhaps they have found out about YOUR income. And there's a penalty awaiting the man or woman who tells false stories about his or her income tax.

Luther F. Speer, deputy commissioner of internal revenue, is the man who will collect the tax. He has made quite a study of the new law and what he says about it is worth listening to. "It is estimated that the income tax law will affect directly more than a half million citizens and aliens," says Mr. Speer.

"Every citizen of the United States, whether residing at home or abroad, and every person residing in the United States, whether a citizen or not, will be liable to this tax, levied at the rate of 1 per cent annually upon such of his or her net income as exceeds $3,000 except in certain cases.

"The personal income tax is to be levied on the net incomes of individuals. In ascertaining this net income two kinds of deductions will be allowed from the gross income. The first of these is known as the 'specific exemption,' which is $3,000 for all unmarried persons and $4,000 for all married men living with their wives or married women living with their husbands. But only one deduction of $4,000 will be made from the aggregate income of both husband and wife when living together. The second deduction is that for necessary expenses, interest paid within the year, taxes, losses, etc., allowable in the ascertainment of net income when the gross income is derived from business.

"These deductions for necessary expenses actually paid in carrying out any business will not include personal, living or family expenses. All necessary expenses, such as clerk hire, rental of place of business, lighting, heating, stationary, livery charges, etc., will be considered as exceptions growing out of the conduct of the business. But expenses for medical attendance, store accounts, family supplies, wages of domestic servants, cost of board, room or house rent for family or personal use will not be deductible from gross income in making the returns for net income.

"Now as to the rates of this tax. There is, first the 'normal rate' of 1 per cent on all net incomes not over $20,000. The amount of this rate is estimated by taking 1 per cent of the net income minus the exemption of the $3,000 or $4,000 allowable to the person making the return. The law also provides for an additional tax of

NEGLECT THE CARE OF YOUR SCALP AND YOUR HAIR WILL BECOME A DISGRACE

The hair is more exposed and hence more liable to accumulate dust and dirt than any other portion of the body.

In spite of this, the hair receives as a rule, the least attention and no real effort is made to keep it in a clean, sanitary condition.

If dandruff contagion is not combated the scalp soon becomes encrusted with scale-like accumulations. Result—the hair dies and falls out.

There is no cause for surprise in this phenomenon: it is natural and happens in every instance where the care of the hair and scalp is overlooked.

You can fortify yourself against hair loss and keep your scalp in a clean, healthy condition by the intelligent use of Newbro's Herpicide.

The eradication of dandruff is only one of the many benefits which may be derived when Herpicide is regularly applied. The absence of falling hair, a cessation of that terrible itching of the scalp and an increased beauty and life of one's tresses are all evidences of the great efficiency of Newbro's Herpicide. It has an exquisite odor and is a delightful hair dressing.
